

D/S Felix

Jacob Kjøde A/S, Bergen

2047 gt

Built in Walker-on-Tyne, delivered in May-1907 as Felix to D/S A/S Felix (P. A. Grøn), Sandefjord.

Ship's History ("Våre gamle skip" by Leif M. Bjørkelund and E. H. Kongshavn): This book gives the tonnage as 1837 gt (at delivery). Purchased from owners in Porsgrunn by D/S A/S Felix (Jacob Ringen), Haugesund in 1916. Transferred in 1918 to D/S A/S Storborg. Managed by Brummenæs & Torgersen 1922. Sold in Febr.-1924 to D/S A/S John Knudsen, Haugesund. Laid up for sale in Haugesund in 1930. Sold in June-1934 to Jacob Kjøde A/S Bergen.

Under German control from 1940. Torpedoed at Folla by the British submarine Stubborn (Duff) on Febr. 11-1944, 3 died, all Norwegian. She was badly damaged, but later repaired in Bergen.

Lauritz Pettersen ("Hjemmeflåten - Mellom venn og fiende") gives the date Febr. 12, and says she was sunk but raised. He does not have her listed under German control.

Related link:

The 3 who died - This website gives the date Febr. 11 and adds that Felix was beached at Flatanger.

POST WAR: In Namsos in May of 1945, returned to Norwegian ownership. Broken up in Antwerp in Dec.-1952.

NOTE: Haugesund had a tug by this name, built 1995, now in service in Amsterdam, Holland.